ORAL EXAMINATION AND FINAL EVALUATION

The nature of the oral examination varies by department and can be summarized as follows. In the Pastoral Department the oral concerns the third comprehensive examination only (the comprehensive essay) and the evaluation of the oral defence is included in the grade for the third examination. (Note that the official description of the requirements is found in the ThD and PhD Handbook.)

Comprehensive essay and oral examination (TSP8003H): _____

In order to advance to the thesis proposal stage of the program, a student must achieve at least B+ (77% or higher) in each comprehensive exam (including the oral evaluation), with an overall average of at least an A- (80% or higher). On this basis, the final evaluation of the comprehensive stage is as follows:

Final evaluation (TSP8009H): _____ (Pass/Fail)

CLEARANCE TO PROCEED TO THESIS PROPOSAL STAGE

- ☐ We have determined that the student has met all program requirements to this point and is eligible to proceed to the thesis proposal stage.
- ☐ We have determined that the student has not met all program requirements to this point and is not eligible to proceed to the thesis proposal stage.
