A final grade of Pass or Fail is reported to the GCTS. In addition, for internal purposes, the Supervisory Committee submits a final letter grade. This final grade takes into consideration the provisional letter grades given after the written portions of the exams and the performance on the oral examination.

Examiners may decide upon a Conditional Pass rather than a letter grade. If so, the examiners must set the condition and a deadline by which it is to be satisfied. If the condition is satisfied, the student will PASS the examination. If the deadline passes without the condition being satisfied, the student will FAIL the examination. A Pass permits the student to proceed to the Thesis Proposal stage of the program. See §C8.1 and C8.5 of the Conjoint Graduate Handbook regarding failures of general exam components.
