About Hart House

Commissioned in 1911 by Vincent Massey, Hart House was completed in 1919 and gifted to the University of Toronto as a gathering place for students. Hart House is the co-curricular centre of the University of Toronto: a place that welcomes both campus and community to explore cultural, intellectual and recreational activities.

SHARED PRIORITIES

Hart House embodies the president's three key priorities:

1. Hart House leverages our urban location by connecting students with the broader community.
2. We help support global education through diverse programs and forums for international voices and perspectives.
3. We re-invent undergraduate education through experiential learning and leadership opportunities.

Hart House is committed to being:

- Inclusive: Ensuring all students feel welcome
- Collaborative: Working across difference
- Connected: Facilitating community service and partnerships
