« Title Case -- Capitalize Each and Every Significant Word as per ROSI. For very long titles, adjust the Subtitle style, paragraph spacing before »

by

« Your Name – complete as registered on ROSI »

[for a ThD, ThM or DMin thesis]
A Thesis submitted to the Faculty of ... College and the ... Department of the Toronto School of Theology
In partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Theology [or Doctor of Ministry or Master of Theology] awarded by ... [the formal name of the college of registration] and the University of Toronto

[for an MA or PhD thesis]
A Thesis submitted to the Faculty of ... College and the ... Department of the Toronto School of Theology
In partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy [or Master of Arts] in Theology awarded by the University of St. Michael's College

« Thesis Title »

« Your Name »

« Degree (spelled out) »

« College name and the University of Toronto

OR University of St. Michael's College »

« Year of Convocation »

Abstract

« Abstract text goes here. Maximum 350 words for doctoral or 150 words for master's thesis excluding title. Do not include graphs, charts, tables, or illustrations in the abstract.

Uses style "Abstract text" (double spaced). »

Acknowledgments (if any)

« Use Body Text or Normal style for text in this section. »

Table of Contents

« The Table of Contents (TOC) can be inserted automatically here if you have used the appropriate styles for section, chapter titles, and for subheadings. In Word, you can check what will appear in the TOC by viewing in "Outline" mode, suppressing body text. »

List of Tables (if any)

List of Plates (if any)

List of Figures (if any)

List of Appendices (if any)

Chapter 1
Title of the First Chapter

The main body of your thesis begins here.

1 « Heading styles 1-9 for thesis body: Heading 1 »

1.1 « First level subheading uses style Heading 2 »

«Text should use the Body Text or Normal style. The default style is Times Roman, 12 pt, double line spacing, block style (no first line indent), 12 points of extra space above each paragraph.

References or Bibliography (if any)

Use the "biblio" style to format references.

Appendices (if any)

Copyright Acknowledgements (if any)