

COMPREHENSIVE FINAL EVALUATION REPORT (BIBLICAL)

INSTRUCTIONS: This form should be completed using the fillable PDF function, by the Chair of the student's comprehensive examinations committee after the oral examination. The completed, signed form should be submitted to the GCTS Office, which will ensure that the information is entered onto the student academic record in ROSI. To complete this form the Chair should consult the student's academic record. Students can print-off their academic record from ROSI via SWS or ACORN.

Section 3: ORAL EXAMINATION AND FINAL EVALUATION

In the Biblical area of specialization, the oral covers all four of the written examinations and receives a separate numerical grade. (Note that the official description of the requirements is found in the ThD and PhD Handbook §8.6.1.)

Oral examination (TSB8009H)

In order to advance to the thesis proposal stage of the program, a student must achieve at least B+ (77% or higher) in each comprehensive exam (including the oral evaluation), with an overall average of at least an A- (80% or higher). On this basis, the final evaluation of the comprehensive stage is as follows:
