

TST LANGUAGE EXAMINATIONS

All examinations are scheduled to be proctored remotely

Tuesday, September 7, 2021: French, German, Greek, Latin, Spanish

Friday, September 24, 2021: Hebrew

Due to COVID-19, all language examinations will be proctored remotely via video conference. Registration is restricted to incoming and continuing TST students.

- Time: All language exams will be held throughout the course of the day (EDT) on Tuesday, September 7, 2021, with the exception of the Hebrew exams, which will be held on Friday, September 24, 2021.
- Students registered for an examination will be informed of their precise language examination time at least eight days in advance of the examination. All exams have a duration of one and a half (1.5) hours.
- Registration: To register, please pay the fee (if required) and inform the GCTS Office (gcts.office@utoronto.ca) by 12:00 noon, August 27, 2021:
 1. Which language(s) you wish to be examined in.
 2. The time zone you expect to be in on the date of the exam.
 3. A photo of the dictionary or lexicon (s) you intend to use (see below).
- Fee and Payment Options: Exams taken by registered TST students to fulfill program language requirements are not subject to a fee (first attempt only). The fee for all other exams, including all exams taken to fulfill admission requirements, is $42 per exam. PayPal is the method of payment. The PayPal link can be found at <https://www.tst.edu/academic/financial-information/payment-methods>.
- Required equipment/materials. Exam writers will require:
 1. A computer equipped for video-conferencing (webcam, microphone, speakers)
 2. A printer with paper, accessible at the beginning of the examination
 3. Blank paper on which to write
 4. A quiet, secure room, and a workspace configuration that permits the remote proctor to have a full view of your writing surface
 5. An official photo ID in English (e.g. passport, TST student card)
 6. A phone that can take and send pictures, or a scanner
- Exams offered: Competency exams are offered in French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Latin, and Spanish. Proficiency exams (for students in Biblical studies) are offered in Hebrew and Greek.
- Dictionary: Students may use a bilingual dictionary or lexicon (e.g., French/English, Greek/English), except in the case of proficiency exams in Greek or Hebrew (see below). In addition, if your first language is not English, you are allowed to use a second lexicon (English/your first language). You must bring your own lexicon(s), which must be clean of all notes/annotations. No other aids, including computerized lexicons or digital devices of any type, are permissible.
- Grades Required to Pass:
French, German, Greek (non-biblical), Italian, Latin, Spanish: B-
Hebrew and Greek, competency (biblical) and proficiency: B+
- Greek/Hebrew/Latin Exam Preparation Guidelines: Please contact the GCTS office after August 27th for more information: gcts.office@utoronto.ca.
- Sample Examinations. Sample exams may be found at <https://www.tst.edu/academic/language-exams-courses>. Please note that these are only intended to give students a sense of the type of texts that may be used. Examiners are not obliged to follow the format of these samples.
