Ecclesia reformata, semper reformanda
(The church reformed, always reforming)

In this conference Chad Van Dixhoorn will relate the reform of the church today to a period of reform from the past, namely, the Westminster Assembly of the seventeenth century, with a focus on three areas of concern: the reform of worship and government; the reform of the heart; and the reform of doctrine.

Lectures:

1. Reforming Worship: The Westminster Assembly and the Church of England in the 1640s
2. Reforming the Heart: Piety for the Church of England in the 1650s
