

SUPERVISORY SUPPORT OF GRADUATE STUDENT TEACHING A COURSE

Instructors are graduate students, at the ABD stage of their program (for TST students this is where an approved Thesis Proposal is on file with the GCTS Office), who are appointed to teach a course solo. The appointment of an Instructor to teach a TST course requires the approval of the GCTS, which verifies that the student is in good academic standing, has an approved thesis proposal, has the support of his or her thesis supervisor/co-supervisors, and has the expertise required to teach the course.
