Course Description
The Toronto School of Theology Choir, an ecumenical choir based at Emmanuel College, serves as the learning platform for this course that seeks to introduce a wide variety of choral music from various Christian traditions. Particular emphasis will be on works by living composers and those from non-Western art music traditions.

Course Outcomes
At the end of this course, students should:
1. Develop an awareness of the diversity of the Christian heritage as found in sacred music making.
2. Demonstrate a critical understanding for music performances as it relates to faith practices, and cultural contexts.

Individual Learning Outcomes
At the end of this course, students should be able to:
1. Sing in at least two different vocal styles and languages as member of the ensemble in non-jury public performances. (e.g. Bel Canto, Cathedral straight tone, Black Gospel, First Nation throat style, Folk song style, etc.)
2. Evaluate two choral works in terms of their theological content, liturgical function and musical style for suitable use in a worship occasion.
3. Demonstrate an informed theological opinion regarding the role and place of performative music (e.g. sacred anthems) in public worship setting.

Course Requirements
1. Attendance (50% of total grade):
   Academic credit for a course requires regular class attendance, unless otherwise indicated in the course syllabus. Attendance means being present in the class for the entire scheduled class meeting, not just part of it. In the event of absence for any reason, including sickness, students are responsible for any information or class content missed. Students are expected to inform the professor prior to class. The professor may require additional work to make up for an absence.

The professor will be required to inform the Basic Degree Committee if students miss two classes. For students who miss three regular classes, or 25% of an intensive course, this may result in a lower grade or even a failing grade for the course. If attendance is poor due to extenuating circumstances, students may petition the Basic Degree Committee to drop a course without academic or financial penalty. (Emmanuel Handbook, 57)

2. Anthems Evaluation (25% of total grade):
Submit one essay (maximum of 1500 words, about 4 - 5 pages) appraising two anthems featured in the repertoire of the TST choir this academic year, commenting on the anthems’ theological content, liturgical function and musical style in the context of their planned use for corporate worship setting.

Writing guidelines:
The paper needs to include brief contextual information about the work: its creation, biographical account of the composer and/or lyricist. Thereafter assess the work’s suitability for use in worship by looking at its theological content and meaning making potential for the congregation by its musical style. For its liturgical efficacy, suggest a suitable placement in the worship service.

Writing hints:
1. Describe aspects of the narrative background of this composition, its lyricist and/or composer that might resonate with present day congregation?
2. How might this anthem contribute to the nurturing and/or ministerial work of the Church?
3. When might be a suitable occasion (e.g. Easter, Mother’s Day, etc.) to have this anthem presented?

Submission instruction:
1. Craft your document in either MS Word (DOCX) or Rich Text Format (RTF) with 12-point size Times New Roman or equivalent font in double line space.
2. Ensure that your assignment bears your U of T registered name.
3. Submit assignment via email to the professor with an email message header entitled: EMP2875 - Anthems Evaluation

Due Date: March 29, 2017

2. Reflection Paper (25% of total grade)

Submit two critical theological reflection papers (maximum of 900 words or 2-3 pages per paper) drawn from two self-select assigned texts (see below). The student is to develop an informed theological opinion regarding the role and place of performative music (e.g. sacred anthems) in public worship setting formulated through the reflection of two self-selected texts.

Assigned Texts (Choose 2)

Writing guidelines:

This assignment requires the student to identify and dialog with 1 or 2 issues in the self-selected books that relate to the place of performative music in public worship.

Writing hints:

1. Do not summarize the assigned readings.
2. Select and cite a suitable quotation from the text that speaks about the issue, then articulate its implications as how it relates to public worship.
3. Ensure that your critique draws on the support from other scholarly sources that you have previously or presently read as part of your ministerial formation and/or academic journey.
Submission instruction:

Mastery of content and strong ability to offer critique drawn from relatively large knowledge base beyond but guided by the provided bibliography.

Within the Grade “B” range of Good: Student shows critical capacity and analytic ability, understanding of relevant issues, familiarity with the literature.

B+  Exhibit good creativity and strong scholarly critical thinking (ethical and contextual). Ability to exercise significantly strong and good leadership with some prompting. Mastery of content and strong ability to offer critique drawn from a wide knowledge base just beyond but guided by the provided bibliography.

B   Exhibit reasonably good creativity and good scholarly critical thinking (ethical or contextual). Ability to exercise good leadership with prompting. Mastery of content and reasonably good ability to offer critique drawn from the knowledge base found mostly in the provided bibliography.

B-  Exhibit some creativity and scholarly critical thinking (ethical or contextual). Ability to exercise suitable leadership with prompting. Reasonable mastery of content and some good ability to offer critique drawn from the knowledge base found only in the provided bibliography.
Specification for written assignments

1. Submit assignments by e-mail. Craft your document in either MS Word (DOCX) or Rich Text Format (RTF) with 12-point size Times New Roman or equivalent font in double line space. Ensure that your assignment bears your U of T registered name. Submit assignment via email to the professor with an email message header entitled: EMP2875 – <assignment title>

2. Give reasons for your positions and arguments and support them with material from required and recommended course readings, and from your own research. For more information, see “Advice on Academic Writing” on the University of Toronto web site at http://www.writing.utoronto.ca/advice

3. Include complete documentation (either footnotes or endnotes) for all published material you use. Cite all sources on which you rely, particularly when they are quoted directly, paraphrased or summarized in your paper. When in doubt please use the system of documentation described in the latest edition of Kate Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (University of Chicago Press). See the “Quick Guide” to this style at http://www.press.uchicago.edu/books/turabian/turabian_citationguide.html

4. Observe all academic policies and regulations of your college of registration, the Toronto School of Theology, and the University of Toronto (e.g., academic honesty, use of inclusive language, requests for extensions). It is your responsibility to know and understand these policies and regulations. Ensure you consult the following:
