The New Homiletic (NH) refers to a revolution in homiletics that began in the 1950s. This course concentrates on the key developments in the NH to around 2000, by which most of the NH themes were established and some departures were seen. Its influences continue, as seen in the two main textbooks. This course will explore the emergence of the NH from the “old homiletic” that is characterized by point form, mechanical notions of structure, vertical notions of authority, use of the Bible in propositional ways, deductive sermons, stories used as illustrations of points already made, objective ideas of truth, religious experience as universal, and sermons that stressed faith as information. By contrast the NH emphasizes a turn to the hearer, organic form, narrative plot, horizontal notions of authority, recovery of the Bible for the pulpit, ductive sermons, stories making their own points in their own ways, contextual understandings of truth, dynamic and tensive notions of language, and sermons as transformational experience. Selected key homileticians will be considered as we consider the ongoing relevance of the NH for today.

Learning Outcomes:

Students successfully completing this course will be able to demonstrate the following
learning outcomes.

(a) in respect of general academic skills
Use language in a way that enhances its tensive nature and communicates experience.

(b) in respect of the understanding of the content of one or more theological disciplines
Helps students to speak of God in contextual ways, and of justice in personal ways.

(c) in respect of personal and spiritual formation Spirituality will be deepened through greater awareness of God in and through the ordinary.

(d) in respect of ministerial and public leadership
Skill will be gained with conversational preaching and creative composition for speech.

Required Texts:

Jonker, Peter. Preaching in Pictures: Using Images for Sermons that Connect. Nashville:
Abingdon Press, 2015.

5304 students are to come to the extra hour of each class having read two chapters of

Recommended Sermon Reading:

Buechner, Fredrick. A Room Called Remember, or Secrets in the Dark.

Assignments, Due Dates, and Evaluation

This course is in seminar format and relies on the shared leadership and participation of the students to meet its goals. 5304 meets for an extra hour following the class.

3304 Requirements:

1) Class attendance is required. Participation, including reports on the readings: 5%.

2) Numerous short creative writing assignments. Due on the designated class dates. 10%

3) Short oral presentations (less than 3 minutes) on weekly readings from Hoezee and Jonker. Format: (a) What was interesting to me, (b) what was problematic, (c) what I might try in preaching. 10%

4) Preach your first sermon to your small group. Pick a lectionary text for an upcoming Sunday. Submit or possibly preach to the whole class by February 11. 25%

6) A 5 minute class presentation on the homiletical method of one of the assigned books chosen in consultation with the instructor at the end of term. 10%

7) A second sermon to be submitted or preached to the class on the signed date after reading week, using a lectionary text for the upcoming Sunday. 30% (5304 students submit or preach only one sermon by April 7.)

8) Written evaluations of class sermons, in duplicate, are to be given, one to the preacher the next week and the collection to the instructor at the end of term. Evaluations are to show critical engagement with class theory. 10%

5304 Requirements:

1) and 2), as above, valued at a total of 5%.

3) Submit (or possibly preach) one sermon by April 7. 20%

4) Teaching Presentations (15 minutes maximum in total), on books listed in the outline, according to the date you sign. Plan on reading selectively, approximately 200 pages from the various books you are assigned for the date. Provide a 2 page class handout with quotations (cited properly) and observations, roughly divided (in an order that makes sense) as: (a) Homiletic Methods (5 min.) (b) Implicit and Explicit Theological Norms: i.e., what do they assume or state about “the Word,” “the congregation,” “the preacher,” “preaching,” “scripture,” and God? (3 min.) (c) Something practical for preachers to try (1 min.) (d) a video clip or audio segment (3 min.) of one of authors, (e) and leave time for conversation with the class (3 min.) This will be evaluated as a teaching assignment. It is not to be a summary lecture of each book in turn, but an integrated and critical handling of the books along theme lines or categories that you determine in relation to the NH. Teaching effectiveness will be evaluated by quality of content, engagement of the class, effective use of teaching aids, degree of interest generated, energy and overall manner of presentation, and class feedback. 25%

5) A 5 minute class presentation on the homiletical method of one of the assigned books chosen in consultation with the instructor at the end of term. 5%.

6) A 15-20 page essay is to be submitted by April 14 on a topic negotiated with the instructor, ideally related to your teaching assignment. It will be worth 45% of the final grade.
